Concern for student arises

Referral made to social worker by:
- Self (student) – Peer/Student Self-Referral Form
- Peer – Peer/Student Self-Referral Form
- Parent/Guardian – Parent/Guardian Referral Form
- Teacher – Faculty/Staff Referral Form
- Administrator – Faculty/Staff Referral Form
- School Nurse – Faculty/Staff Referral Form
- Outside Agency
- Other

Concern is identified on Referral Form(s)

Social worker assesses concern by reviewing data
Level and type of intervention are determined

In-School Intervention:
- Emergency Intervention
- Consultation/Collaboration with student, parent/guardians, and/or teachers/other school personnel
- Implementation of home/classroom intervention strategies
- Individual counseling
- Small group counseling

Referral to In-School Resource:
- Administrator
- School nurse
- School psychologist
- Guidance/school counselor
- School resource officer

Referral to Community Resources:
- Hotline
- Outside Counseling
- Child Protective Services/DSS
- Juvenile Office
- Other Community Services (e.g., food pantry, homeless shelter, church outreach, etc.).

Implementation of intervention, monitor student’s response to the intervention, periodically re-assess as needed

Follow-up with the referring individual within the guidelines of the confidentiality