

BOARD OFFICERS

The Board of Education members shall elect a President and a Vice President who shall have the duty to vote on all issues brought before the Board for action.

To qualify for eligibility to hold the office of President, a person must have been a member of the Board for at least two years. To qualify for eligibility to hold the office of Vice President, a person must have been a member of the Board at least one year.

In the event of a vacancy in the President's office, the Vice President shall fill the vacancy for the duration of the unexpired term. Vacancy occurring in the Vice President's office shall be filled for the duration of the unexpired term by a Board member elected by the Board. This election shall require a majority vote of the Board to fill the vacancy of the office of Vice President. At least ten (10) days notice must be given to members that the election is a part of the agenda for the meeting.

The Board President shall have the following duties and powers:

1. The President shall perform the duties associated with the office of President of a Board of Education organized under the education laws of New York State. The President shall have the power to sign and execute all authorized bonds, mortgages, contracts, agreements, or other obligations in the name of the Board of Education, and shall exercise such other powers as may be assigned by the Board. The President shall preside at all regular and special meetings of the Board.
2. The President shall appoint the standing committees of the Board and shall determine the duties and areas of responsibilities of these several committees. The President shall coordinate the work of the officers and committees of the Board.
3. The President shall be an ex-officio member of all committees of the Board.
4. The President may appoint, if so desired, on behalf of the Board, a qualified parliamentarian to serve at all regular or special meetings of the Board and at such other meeting as the President may designate, and to render such other services to the Board as the President may deem necessary or desirable.
5. The President shall have the power to vote on all questions that may come before the Board.
6. The President shall be the official spokesperson for the Board.

The Vice President of the Board shall have the following duties and powers:

1. The Vice President shall act as an aide to the President.
